REQUIREMENTS

Size: No greater than 24” x 30” (portrait or landscape) unless approved by EHC

Media: Any two-dimensional media is accepted such as oil, acrylic, watercolor, pastel, drawing, digital, photography, combination of any of the above, etc. Three dimensional sculptures are not accepted due to lack of space. Performing arts can be submitted via video with permission from EHC. EHC can provide funds (approximately $50 per student) towards materials.

Topic: The finished work MUST reflect one of the project’s Self-Evident Truths. This must appear within the work in a legible fashion

Additional materials: The artists will provide a bio, a personal statement describing their project and process, and a headshot photograph of themselves for the exhibit.

Suggested Research: Suggest watching the documentary film, “A Place at the Table” (90 minutes, available on DVD from the EHC), volunteering at a local food pantry or free community meal (EHC can help arrange volunteer opportunity), researching hunger issues online via feedingamerica.org, FRAC.org, eastonhungercoalition.org, SHFBLV.org.

Documentation: Participating student artists should submit their project participation hours to the EHC at the completion of the project so that community hours can be sent to your school.

SELF-EVIDENT TRUTHS ABOUT HUNGER

No one wants their neighbor to be hungry
All mothers and fathers want their children to have consistent and healthy meals
Everyone deserves a place at the table
There is no single reason people are hungry
There is no single formula to fix hunger
An empty cupboard is not an indication of an empty soul
Retirees do not retire from eating
Prosperity for Easton will only be meaningful if it includes everyone
Ending hunger in Easton by 2023 will be the surest indicator of a healthy community
When we break bread together, Easton thrives
No one should live in fear of hunger
Good food for all is a basic human right; there is no life, liberty, or pursuit of happiness without it
